2007 Mollydooker Shiraz Blue Eyed Boy

The opaque purple-colored 2007 Blue-Eyed Boy Shiraz spent 12 months in 80% new American oak. It offers up an enticing nose of cedar, tobacco, mineral, blueberry, and black raspberry. Opulent on the palate, this glossy effort will evolve for another 1-2 years but can be enjoyed now and over the next decade. ~~$60~~ $49.99

Parker 93

2007 Mollydooker Two Left Feet

The 2007 Two Left Feet is a blend of 68% Shiraz, 17% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 15% Merlot aged in 50% new oak for 11 months. A glass-coating opaque purple, it offers up a complex aromatic array of violets, scorched earth, smoke, black cherry, and blueberry. On the palate it is full-bodied, layered, and concentrated, with loads of spicy, savory blue and black fruits, silky tannin, and a very long finish. It will continue to unfold for another 1-2 years and drink well through 2017. ~~$26~~ $21.99

Parker 98

2004 Elderton Command Shiraz

The 2004 Shiraz "Command" comes from a single block of 104-year-old vines. It was aged in 100% new oak puncheons (400 liter barrels). Opaque purple-colored, this Shiraz has fabulous aromatics of smoke, melted tar, licorice, espresso, game, and blueberry compote. Layered but tight, this full-bodied wine is thick, rich, and totally hedonistic. The finish lasts for 60 seconds. However, be warned. This monumental Shiraz needs 10-15 years to fully unfold. It will provide pleasure through 2035 ~~$97~~ $82.69

2007 Tait The Ball Buster Proprietary Red

The Ball Buster blend has been an annual Best Buy and, even at the current asking price, the 2007 The Ball Buster is an awesome value (at least for hedonists). It is composed of 72% Shiraz, 17% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 11% Merlot aged for 12 months in seasoned French and American oak. Opaque purple-colored, it has a nose of cedar, leather, spice box, and blueberry that leaps from the glass. This is followed by a plush, full-bodied wine with gobs of flavor and superior length. This easy-to-understand effort defines the meaning of over-delivering and will do so for another four years. ~~$20~~ $16.69 Back in Stock

2007 Mollydooker The Maitre d' Cabernet

The 2007 The Maitre D' Cabernet Sauvignon is opaque purple-colored with legs that slowly ooze down the glass. It received the same elegeance as The Scooter. It reveals an enticing nose of spice box, scorched earth, smoke, black currant, and blackberry followed by a velvety-textured, layered, savory Cabernet with excellent depth and balance. This lengthy effort will evolve for 1-2 years and provide pleasure through 2017. ~~$26~~ $21.99

2008 Layer Cake Shiraz

Tasting Notes: Dark, dense and creamy, complex aromas of black plum, bing cherry, blackberry and pepper merge with licorice, tobacco, mocha and dark chocolate. This is one inky Shiraz; an explosion of dark, super ripe, wild blackberry, with a touch of cigar box finishing with a mélange of exotic spices. A pure fruit bomb...complete from attack through a long, lingering finish. Chefs will save this cake for themselves... Wine Facts: □ 100% Pure Shiraz □ Alc. 14.9% □ Bottled January 2009 ~~$17~~ $14.39

DENNER Syrah

TENSLEY Syrah Santa
Barbara County Tierra
Alta Vineyard 2007

Tart and vibrant, with snappy huckleberry, blueberry and wild berry fruit that's tasty now yet has the backbone and structure for future enjoyment. Full-bodied and awfully tempting today. Drink now through 2014. 330 cases made. -JL ~~$38~~ $33.99

Wine Spectator 88 * LOUIS BERNARD
Côtes du Rhône 2007

2007 Carlisle Dry
Creek Syrah

Tasting Note: Black ruby-purple. A perfumed nose of blackberry, cassis, and spring flowers (the viognier perhaps?) emerges from the glass. Full-bodied but like a welterweight champion, light on its feet thanks to healthy acidity and refreshing tannins on the finish. Drink this refined but authoritative syrah from release through 2015. (MRO - 01/27/09) $33

2007 Carlisle Russian
River Syrah

Tasting Note: Opaque purple. Even the bubbles are black. Concentrated, brooding aromas of blackberry, acacia flower, creosote, and spice. What a sniff! On the palate, totally seamless with impeccable balance. Reminds me of a hypothetical blend of the 2005 and 2006. While enjoyable now with a good decanting, peak drinking should be between 2010 through 2016. And by the way, if you can find a better California syrah at a similar price, please let me know! (MRO - 01/27/09) $25

Wine Spectator 92
ZACA MESA Syrah
Santa Ynez Valley 2005

Simi 2005 Landslide Vineyard
Alexander Valley

This bottling has been a star for Simi since its inception, and the '05 is among their best ever. It shows Alexander Valley's softness and slight herbaceousness, along with decadently rich red currant, mocha and oak flavors. Classic and elegant now, it should develop bottle complexities for the next six years. This is a good price, especially compared to what's going on in Napa Valley. Editors' Choice. —S.H. ~~$35~~ $29.99

In Stock !*2006 Justin Isosceles

Tasting Notes: The 2006 ISOSCELES is inky purple with a slight red hue around the rim. Aromas of blackberry, black plum, leather, mocha, and cassis combine with light layers of caramel, vanilla and a touch of smoke resulting from the extended oak ageing. The entry is filled with red and black fruit. A balance of softness and acidity segues into a mid palate with length and weight. Seamless, integrated tannins marry with ripe fruit, and flavors of red currant, butterscotch and hint of pencil lead on the finish of this wine. The 2006 ISOSCELES is very young, and will continue to evolve from now through 2025. ~~$62~~

We tasted this wine last week and it was fantastic. Using declassified fruit from Stewart, Paul Hobbs has created an outstanding wine. Rich black berry, chocolate and smooth tannins fill the glass. Roy's biggest production wine (approximately 1,500 cases) is their proprietary blend. The 2006 Proprietary Red is composed of 82% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot, and 3% Petit Verdot. It possesses elegant, roasted herb, chocolate, espresso, and black currant aromas, delicious fruit, and a long, muscular, concentrated personality. 2006 Jim Barry Cabernet Sauvignon The Cover Drive

The 2006 The Cover Drive Cabernet Sauvignon was aged for 12 months in seasoned French and American oak. Purple-colored, it offers up aromas of cedar, tobacco, and black currants. Ripe and easy-going on the palate, it has excellent depth of flavor, good concentration, and a fruit-filled finish. It will evolve for 2-3 years but can be enjoyed now. ~~$17~~ $13.99

Seven Hills Cabernet Sauvignon Walla Walla Valley Seven Hills Vineyard 2005

Poised, focused and brimming with ripe cherry, currant, orange peel, grill smoke and sage flavors, lingering charmingly as the finish sails on and on against fine-grained tannins. This has the balance and depth to go the distance. Best from 2010 through 2015.—H.S. 826 cases made. ~~$30~~ $26.99

2007 MacRostie Carneros Chardonnay

Double Gold San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition

ORIGIN: The grapes for this Chardonnay came from several prime vineyards on both the Sonoma and Napa sides of Carneros, including Sangiacomo, Beresini, Beckstoffer, McCall, Thornton, Champlin Creek, Hi Vista, Durrell, and Mitsuko's vineyard. Our own Wildcat Mountain Estate Vineyard, high up in the hills on the extreme western edge of the Carneros AVA, played a significant role in the blend as well, adding extra depth

TASTING NOTES: Beautiful pale straw gold in color, the aromas are reminiscent of lime oil and crème brûlée. In the mouth there is lush baked apple and ripe mango, with a hint of cinnamon toast. It finishes with a good deal of weight, but still light on its feet. ~~$25~~ $17.69

2007 Nickel & Nickel Truchard Chardonnay

The 2007 Truchard Chardonnay has a bit more body and length than its predecessor. A medley of mixed fruits including peach, apple, and tropical notes are ever present in the glass. The vanilla and cedar from the French oak combine with the minerality, filling out the middle palate and creating a rich wine. A full, creamy palate, which is not a result of malolactic fermentation but a characteristic that is inherent in the ripe fruit, carries into a long, flavorful finish. $45 ~~$40.99~~

2006 Mer Soleil Chardonnay Silver

Wine Enthusiast, December 1, 2007. Rated: 92 points.

"This is a stunning wine, showing the laser-like purity and bright acids that this northwestern part of the Highlands coaxes from the grapes. The brilliantly illuminated flavors range from limes and kiwis to green apples, peaches and guavas. The finish is dry, but with a honeyed unctuousness that could be a touch of botrytis." ~~$43~~ $20.29

Parker 92*2007 Beringer Chardonnay
Private Reserve

The 2007 Chardonnay Private Reserve (always one of California's top Chardonnays) has toned down the toasty oak component, exhibiting excellent nutty, honeyed, buttery notes of orange marmalade, brioche, and spice. Full-bodied, rich, and pure, it reminds me of a Burgundian premier cru from Chassagne-Montrachet or Meursault. $36 $27.99

As a fourth-generation Napa Valley winemaker, and full-time winemaker at his family's Ruth-erford Grove Winery, Andy inherited his ancestors' love of Zinfandel and Petite Sirah, and crafts Jelly Jar with profound understanding. He knows how to enhance the unique character of grapes from single vineyard sites he has hand-chosen. And like the wines from the turn of the century, Jelly Jar is a true family endeavor. Andy and Shannon work together in every aspect of production, from the selection of grapes to winemaking decisions like manual punch-downs, and from the hand-labeling of each case to the wine's word-of-mouth release.

Winemaker's Notes: The Colores del Sol Malbec 2008 Reserva is a deep ruby color with bright purple hues. Intense aromas of ripe blackberry, black cherry and hints of smoke lead into a rich palate full of juicy fruit characteristics, brown spice, and mocha notes. ## 2007 Don Miguel Gascon Malbec * Parker 87

The purple-colored 2007 Malbec contains 5% Shiraz in the blend. The wine spent seven months in French and American oak. It exhibits an attractive nose of black cherry with a hint of blueberry. Smooth-textured, savory, and nicely balanced, it will drink well for another four years. It over-delivers for its humble price tag. ~~$12~~ $9.79

2007 Ehlers Estate Sauvignon Blanc

We are very excited to introduce our first 100 percent estate-grown Sauvignon Blanc. Embodying the natural diversity of our vineyards, this wine brings together Sauvignon Blanc grown on two distinctive soil profiles. The Sauvignon Blanc cultivated on a richer, loamy clay block of our vineyard produces excellent weight and texture in the final wine, as well as lush creamy peach, melon and pear flavors. In contrast, the grapes that are grown on an extremely gravelly block of our vineyard yield intense aromatics, crisp acidity and flavors of lemongrass, mineral and tangy nectarine.

Parker 94 * 2005 Bodegas Trapiche Malbec Vina Fausto Orellana

The 2005 Malbec Vina Fausto Orellana is sourced from the coolest of the three single vineyard sites. The sexy bouquet delivers pain grille, mineral, pencil lead, lavender, black cherry, and black raspberry aromas. This leads to an elegant yet powerful wine with serious density, richness, and grip. Its considerable structure is well-concealed under a blanket of velvety fruit. This lengthy, beautifully rendered wine will profit from another 5-7 years of cellaring and be in its prime from 2014 to 2030. ~~$45~~ $39.99

2008 Rosenblum Cellars Vintner's Cuvee Sauvignon Blanc

Our first vintage of the Vintner's Cuvee Sauvignon Blanc is crisp and clean with bright aromas of citrus, melon, figs and hay. Chill a bottle to share with friends over good conversation and savory appetizers. This versatile wine makes the perfect complement for fresh green salads—especially topped with crab or shrimp—and grilled white fish and chicken. We recommend lightly marinating halibut in lemon, garlic, olive oil and thyme, grilling it on the barbecue, and then pouring our Sauvignon Blanc for a great al fresco dinner. ~~$14~~ Wine Buyer's Blow Out Price $4.99
